

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

To Whomsoever It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Mitrayan Mallick, who worked full-time with Raitomira Solutions Private Limited as a Junior Moderator from 19 August 2025 to 20 May 2026.

During this period, Mitrayan supported community moderation and operational activities by monitoring user interactions, applying established community guidelines, identifying and escalating issues, maintaining reports, and coordinating with the wider operations team. The role required attention to detail, sound judgement, consistency, and the ability to handle sensitive situations calmly.

Mitrayan demonstrated reliability, discipline, clear communication, and a cooperative approach to work. Assigned tasks were handled responsibly, processes were followed consistently, and Mitrayan contributed positively to the team and the communities supported by the company.

Based on the experience of working together, I am happy to recommend Mitrayan for opportunities in community moderation, community operations, trust and safety, customer support, or game operations. I believe Mitrayan will be a dependable addition to a professional team.

Please feel free to contact the company should any further employment verification be required.
